Selection process of sportsmen/sportswomen

2322. SHRI O.T. LEPCHA: Will the Minister of YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government has formulated any policy for selection process of sportsmen/ sportswomen for the Commonwealth Games to be held in India in 2010;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether the aforesaid policy is being implemented by Government; and

(d) if so, the details thereof indicating the details of training programme being conducted at present, game-wise/sportsperson-wise?

THE MINISTER OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS (SHRI MANI SHANKAR AIYAR): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. To improve the performance of the Indian contingent in the Commonwealth Games, 2010, extensive discussions have been held with all stakeholders and a Scheme for providing state of art training, foreign exposure, scientific backup, equipment etc. at an estimated cost of Rs. 802.00 crore has been drawn up for the elite sportspersons in all the disciplines of the Commonwealth Games, 2010. The selection process of above Scheme envisages that the Sports Authority of India, in consultation with the National Sports Federations of the concerned discipline, will prepare the list of core probables with complete profile of each sportsperson for the consideration of a "Monitoring Committee" and a "Steering Committee" constituted at the Government level, where these lists of core probables will be finalized. These core probables will undergo state of art training and exposure, and closer to the Games, based on their performance, the Indian teams which will represent India at the Commonwealth Games will be selected from out of these core probables.

(c) No, Sir. The Scheme is in the process of appraisal/approval.
